

I am not in favor of the Federal Government diluting Indiana's telephone privacy law by enacting national lower standards. I appreciate not having the menacing phone calls through out the evening.